

This Sam Adams is NOT the guy on the beer bottle. On stage, the Cleveland, Ohio native is both laid-back and energetic. He receives high praise for having a profanity-free act that entertains comedy clubs and corporate events across America.

In 2018, the “True Color” video clip from Sam’s Dry Bar Comedy special went viral with over 10 million Facebook views in less than 72 hours.

Clips from the Dry Bar special have generated over 45 million social media views worldwide.

Not bad for the comedian whose full-time career in the business began at age 49, after leaving the 2009 Great American Comedy Festival as its most unique prize winner still to date — winning first-place in the amateur division and finishing second in the professional division.
